Summary: Guess what the case is, zoom in – great PowerPoint games for medium and large groups! Goal: Be the first team I guess zoomed in on the object – the team with the most game-winning points. Preparations: – Download PowerPoint Slide – Laptop – Projector & Screen, Cable -Timer/Watch – Paper & Pen – List of Items – Something to Record Teams Points How to Play Zoom In Game: 1. Separate all to 5 teams. Give each team a piece of paper and pen. The aim of the game is to identify as many objects from PowerPoint as possible as a group. 2. The first slide zoom is worth 5 points, the second is zooming down the slide 4 points, the third zooming down the slide is 3 points, and the fourth zooming down the slide is worth only 1 point. Each team tries to identify the object as soon as possible, to get the maximum score. 3. As soon as the group thinks they know what the object is, they should raise their hands and write their answers on pieces of paper. *You should ask and note which slides they wrote their answers. 4. Go through each slide, give each team 1 minute to look, discuss each slide, and have a chance to write your answer Once their response is written, they cannot change their response. 5. Once the object is revealed, the team that has the right answer will receive the amount of slide points in which they have been stopped. For example, if a team correctly identifies the object with the second slide Zoomed, the team will be awarded 4 points. If the team responds incorrectly, it won't score any points for that round. 6. The team with the most points wins the game. You may also enjoy: Food Tuning Challenge – Fishbowl – Danger PowerPoint Template 1 Zoom in guess who? 2. What do you see in this image?
